play and stay: golfing in carlow

Carlow's golf courses offer an enjoyable experience for golfers of all ages and abilities. Three of these – Carlow, Mount Wolseley and Bunclody Golf and Fishing Club – are championship courses which provide an exciting test of golfing skill, each course offering its own unique challenge. Beside the magnificent Blackstairs Mountains is the renowned 9-hole Borris Golf Club while an 18-hole par 3 course is located at Quinagh House in Carlow Town.

Combine your golfing round with a break in any one of Carlow's fine hotels, B&B's, guesthouses and self-catering accommodation or opt to participate in the three-day County Carlow Golf Classic from September 7th – 9th with special overnight offers available. To register visit www.carlowtourism.com/golfclassic

Golfers are guaranteed a warm welcome, great value and variety with plenty of options for the 19th hole in Carlow's vibrant pub and restaurant scene. Visitors can enjoy artisan craft beers and world class Irish whiskeys from Carlow Brewing Company and Walsh Whiskey. For further details on accommodation, golf and great things to do for non-golfing partners visit www.carlowtourism.com

Carlow Golf Club, Deerpark, Dublin Road, Carlow
t: 059-9131695 w: www.carlowgolfclub.ie

Carlow Golf Club is an inland links, laid out in a former wild deer park over undulating terrain with numerous elevated tees, several excellent dog legs and small slick putting surfaces. Extensive, mature woods are a strong feature in a pleasant countryside setting where the unusually sandy soil has the bonus of allowing year-round play. The course is rated amongst the top 20 championship courses in Ireland. The Oak Park course, a 9-hole par 35, is situated on rolling terrain, providing a superb challenge to golfers of all standards.

Green fees from €40 to €60 with group rates available. Oak Park 9-hole course €10.

Mount Wolseley Hotel, Spa & Golf Resort, Tullow, Co. Carlow
t: 059-9180100 w: www.mountwolseley.ie

With its broad fairways, unforgiving rough and picturesque water hazards, Mount Wolseley has justifiably played host to a number of national and international golf competitions. This par-72 course provides a challenge to every ability as each hole presents demanding approach shots, with wide landing areas being the only concession. This charming resort offers an eclectic blend of contemporary design, surrounded by 200 acres of peaceful landscape, a 143-bedroom hotel, self-catering houses and the Sanctuary Spa.

Green fees from €35 – €65 with group rates available.

Bunclody Golf and Fishing Club, Carrigduff, Bunclody, Co. Wexford
t: 053-9374444 w: www.bunclodygfc.ie

Situated in 300 acres of breathtaking parklands on the Carlow Wexford border, Bunclody Golf and Fishing Club is ranked in the top 30 parkland courses in Ireland. Running over 7,000 yards on the banks of the River Slaney it has a diversity of golf holes, rarely seen on one golf course. Bunclody is Europe's only golf course with an elevator taking golfers from the 17th hole up five floors to the 18th tee box.

Green fees from €25 to €50. Summer Stay and Play €89 per person sharing.

Borris Golf Course, Borris, Co. Carlow
t: 059-9773310 w: www.borrisgolfclub.ie

Established in 1907, the 9-hole Borris Golf Club is one of the oldest clubs in Ireland and this is reflected in its mature parkland course. The breathtaking scenery of the surrounding countryside combined with the strategic design of the course ensure that all who visit, always return! Spectacular views of Borris House, Mount Leinster and the famous Borris Viaduct can be enjoyed during a golfing round.

Green fees €16.

Quinagh House Par 3, Quinagh House, Carlow
t: 059-9142088

Quinagh House is set in 42 acres on the outskirts of Carlow Town, surrounded by mature trees with extensive views of the Killeshin Hills. A very well maintained golf course, it is a perfect place to relax or enjoy a friendly competition with 18 exceptional holes ranging from 130 – 220 yards in length. Well positioned trees throughout the course and water hazards serve as challenging obstacles while also enhancing the quality of this spacious course. A perfect course for both beginners and experienced players.

Green fees from €7 – €10.
